NUMBER 163

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Election, Tuesday, Nov. 7th.

CONGRESSIONAL TICKET.

For Congress—First District—

CHARLES G. WILLIAMS, of Rock.

SENATORIAL TICKET.

For State Senator—17th District—

S. L. LARSEN, of Fulton.

COUNTY TICKET.

For Sheriff—

R. B. HARPER, of Spring Valley.

For Register of Deeds—

CHARLES L. VALENTE, of Janesville.

For Clerk of the Court—

A. W. BALDWIN, of Milton.

For County Treasurer—

WILLIS MILES, of Janesville.

For County Clerk—

SYLVANUS MORGAN, of Lima.

For District Attorney—

JOHN W. SALL, of Janesville.

For County Surveyor—

EDWARD ROGER, of Harmony.

For Coroner—

R. L. COLVIN, of Janesville.

What is wanted in the Third district is harmony, and a victory will follow.

It looks as if Fairchild will be the next Congressman from the Third district.

The magnificent telescope for the Beloit College is finished and is being tested in Cleveland.

General Beaver, of Pennsylvania, can take courage from what the Stewarts have done in New York.

The Pennsylvania Stewarts are picking up courage. In their imagination the morning light is breaking.

The weight of opinion among the Republican papers of the State is that both Keyes and Hazelton should withdraw.

Mr. Keyes is willing, but it is said Hazelton is not.

It is said that the home of ex-President Hayes is an exceedingly happy one, and that while Mr. Hayes is reading and writing in his elegant library, Mrs. Hayes works in the poultry yard.

J. W. Dawes, has been nominated by the Republicans for Governor of Nebraska. He used to live in Milwaukee. This will make three Governors that Milwaukee has furnished for other States.

The Prohibitionists of the Third district have nominated Mr. Samuel D.

Hastings for Congress. The Convention adopted a platform with many planks some aiming at one thing and some at another.

Hazelton's second piece of poor luck in the campaign was to lose his gold watch, while in Milwaukee this week. His first was to induce Stickney to betray a friend. Chickens always come home to roost.

General Bragg says he will now practice law and try and "make some money and carve out a decent reputation." This implies that he couldn't make a decent reputation and be a member of Congress.

"The Hon. George H. Corliss, of Providence, I. L. has given $1,250 for the purchase of Professor Ward's college series of casts of extinct specimens in natural history for the new Museum of Iowa College at Grinnell." We wonder if Tilden's is among the number of specimens.

Poor comfort for General Bragg, from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "When General Bragg, of Wisconsin, made those rattling fine Union speeches in Congress, we thought his Democratic constituents would get even with him some day. They did so by defeating him as a candidate for renomination."

Susan B. Anthony is stamping Kansas for the woman suffragists and Prohibitionists. Susan is always in the front line of battle. When the century has passed, she will still be found fighting men and whisky. She began her work scores of decades ago, and will continue it for generations to come, and all the while never grow old.

It is but simple justice to remark that the Milwaukee Republican-Sentinel's account of the Reunion was a splendid piece of work. So was its report of the opening of the Exposition several days ago. The Republican-Sentinel is building itself up strongly and rapidly in the confidence of the people.

Governor St. John, of Kansas, has written a very sensible letter, which the Prohibitionists of Wisconsin should read and profit thereby. He urges the temperance people of Ohio to vote the Republican ticket this year. Some doubt having been thrown on the authenticity of the letter, the Governor writes again to say that his former letter expressed his belief and that he does not see how the advice it followed can injure the cause of Prohibition.

They have got to calling General Grant old in New York. His hair is quite gray and his form more bent than a few years ago. An intimate friend says: "The old man is one of the most eager and enamored operators on Wall street, where he spends all of his time. I call him an old man because he has aged so much in the past two years that it is universally remarked. He has lost his military bearing and is round shouldered and undeniably getting fat—the effects of peace!"

The whirligig of men, like the whirlig of time, brings wonderful changes now and then. The Trades Assembly of Milwaukee has nominated Mr. George B. Goodwin for Congress. Mr. Goodwin used to be a Republican, and many times made rousing campaign speeches.

Then he got a little off, and became a sort of a Greenback-Democrat—the lowest round in the political ladder. Then a full-fledged Greenbacker. He became sick of this and wandered back near the Republican fold, and at last strayed into the Trades Union, and he has received his suave plum—a nomination for Congress.

There is no telling what feat in political gymnastics Mr. Goodwin will perform next.

There is a very interesting piece of history connected with the recent defeat of Congressman Tom Young for re-nomination in the Second Cincinnati district.

Mr. Amor Smith was collector of Internal Revenue in that city, and had performed his duty well. He was an administration man, and therefore Young conceived a plan to turn him out of office and fill his place with a genuine Stalwart. Mr. Smith was removed and the Stalwart appointed, and here the matter ended until Congressman Young wanted a re-nomination. The people of his district looked upon the removal of Mr. Smith as an outrage, and when the Convention met to nominate a candidate for Congress, Mr. Young had but 50 votes while Mr. Smith had 137, and therefore carried away the prize. Mr. Young has received his reward and received it very timely.

The Republican State Central Committee will soon decide what to do with the prohibition question. They have taken the matter under advisement and in a short time will recommend what action the Republican throughout the State should take. Independent of what the State Central Committee may recommend what ought to be done, Republican county and congressional conventions have taken the matter in hand, and have adopted resolutions favoring a submission of that question to the people.

It is not likely that the State Committee will advise a different course. There has been such a change of public sentiment in regard to a submission of a prohibition amendment that the Republican party must meet the question one way or another, and meet it openly. We believe the report which will be made by the State Central Committee will express the views of a large majority of the Republicans of the State, and will mark out the wisest course for the Republicans to take.

THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE AND

THE KEYES-HAZELTON MATTER.

The motion of Dr. Palmer, of the State

Central Committee, to refer the Keyes-Hazelton dilemma to a special committee of five, was a very happy and timely one; and although the Committee will virtually have no power to decide which candidate is in the right and which is in the wrong, nevertheless after thoroughly inquiring into the matter, their advice as to what course should be pursued, will be of some importance to the State Central Committee. The general impression prevails that Hazelton obtained his nomination through a well laid scheme of treachery, and therefore should clear the track and make room for some candidate who would bring both factions into close harmony and win the election.

The Milwaukee Republican-Sentinel, in reporting the proceedings of the State Central Committee, prints the following: "It is now arranged that the disputing candidates shall go back to their respective homes, where each can talk over the matter with his supporters.

The members of the Special Committee will proceed to Madison in a day or two and there again confer with Hazelton and Keyes and their friends. It is understood that chairman Sanderson and his associates on the Committee favor the withdrawal of Hazelton and Keyes and the placing in the field of a candidate upon whom the friends of both can unite. Gen. Lucius Fairchild continues to be spoken of as an eligible person with whom to carry out the latter portion of the programme, in case the former portion—including both contestants to withdraw—can be made to work.

In case of the failure of efforts to effect a compromise, the State Central Committee will ultimately be obliged to extend recognition to one or the other of the contestants."

Mr. Keyes position is one which strikes the public as being exceedingly fair.

For the sake of harmony he is willing to withdraw in favor of a third man. Mr.

Hazelton, in this case, does not seem to be as good a Republican as Mr. Keyes.

He wants to run for Congress whether he is right or wrong and does not seem to care whether the party is defeated or not. This is a bad spirit to show at this particular time. The impression of the State Central Committee appears to be that both candidates should withdraw and this impression is shared by every true and unselfish Republican who would rather see the party successful than that a certain candidate's private interests advanced, or his greed for office satisfied at the expense of justice.

Bad Scratches.

Joe M. Snider, Madison, Wis., says: "I cured a horse of the worst case of scratches that I ever saw, with Cole's Veterinary Carbolivase. Of all the salves or ointments that I ever saw this is the best." Pound cans, $1.00; small cans, 50 cents.

DEMOCRACY.

The New York State Convention Gets Slowly to Work.

Representation Given to Tammany Hall, Irving Hall, and the County Democracy.

Close Contest Between Flower, Stetson and Cleveland.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 21.—The Democratic state convention concluded its labors here today after a three hours' session. The administrative men are happy, having captured everything, including the temporary and permanent offices, besides the nomination of the nominees, besides Folger for governor, embracing Judge Charles Andrews for chief judge of the court of appeals, B. Platt Carpenter for lieutenant governor, A. B. Hepburn for congress-at-large, all of whom are Progressive Democrats.

When that portion of the platform was read admirable administration of President Arthur, prolonged applause and cheer upon cheer echoed through the hall.

The session here to night is in regard to an alleged forged dispatch caused to have been received here on Tuesday by S. B.

French, of New York, from Governor William

L. Robertson, of New York. The dispatch reads:

"New York, Sept. 19.—To Hon. S. B.

French, Grand Union Hall, Saratoga, New York: I am very sorry to hear of the disappointment of the Democratic
